I appreciate anything, although I have so many mugs and candles.

What can your classroom parents do to help you most this year. (Optional)

Encourage reading at least 5 days a week for a minimum of 15 minutes. Have your child master their multiplication facts 0-12. Practice at home as much as possible. Please consider to volunteer and make a short presentation with students when your job relates to what we are learning. Please reach out to me if you have any concerns or suggestions. Let us work together
