Is there anything you would prefer not to receive / already have enough of?

Fresh flowers are dangerous for me. I do not eat any sugar or drink any carbonation. I truly love anything I can give to the kids, stickers, treasure box items, and STEM toys. I also love hand me down books.

What can your classroom parents do to help you most this year. (Optional)

READ every night to your child. Not with the purpose of teaching them to read, but with the purpose of loving books! Read something you like and remember we are still building vocabulary and imagination.
